

LEADERSHIFT

International Symposium on the Philosophy of Postconventional Leadership

on the occasion of the 11th Anniversary of the Day of Planetary Consciousness

March 21st, 18:00

Location: Ceremonial Hall of the Hungarian Culture Foundation
(Budapest I., Szentháromság tér 6.)

Host:

Mária Sági, Scientific Director, Club of Budapest Foundation

Welcoming Address:

Ervin Laszlo, President, Club of Budapest

Introduction:

Guido Fiolka Managing Director, ELA European Leadership Academy

Festive Piano Concert:

Franz Liszt "Waldesrauschen" – Beáta Czébely

Franz Liszt: Rhapsody 14, (Hungarian Fantasy) – János Bacsi

Panel Discussion

About global ways of thinking, planetary consciousness, the necessary elements of individual and collective development of consciousness for leadership in a sustainable world.

Participants:

Etele Baráth, Honorary Professor, Corvinus University Budapest

Karl-Josef Does, Executive Coach, ELA European Leadership Academy

Radoje Lausevic, deputy executive director, Regional Environmental Center

Marta Szigeti Bonifert, executive director, Regional Environmental Center

Rasmus Tenbergen, Head Social Business and Negotiations, ELA European Leadership Academy

Ursula M. Wagner, Managing Director, Coaching Center Berlin

Moderator: Tamás Halm, Secretary General, Hungarian Economic Association

21:00

Reception

REGISTRATION: Szilvia Csillingh ■ info@budapestklub.t-online.hu (Tel.: +36-1-375-1885)

ELA European Leadership Academy

REGIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL CENTER

Panel Discussion

Etele Baráth, Honorary Professor, Corvinus University Budapest
"Philosophy of post-conventional leadership"

Karl-Josef Does, Executive Coach, ELA European Leadership Academy
"Ethics for post-conventional leadership"

Radoje Lausevic, deputy executive director, Regional Environmental Center
"Challenges and barriers of sustainability in Central and Eastern Europe"

Marta Szigeti Bonifert, executive director, Regional Environmental Center
"The next generation – our last chance?"

Rasmus Tenbergen, Head Social Business and Negotiations, ELA European Leadership Academy
"Practical Steps toward Post-Conventional Leadership Institutions."

Ursula M. Wagner, Managing Director, Coaching Center Berlin
"Transforming the leader's consciousness – the training of wisdom and virtues in a world gone mad"